Free activities to entertain your children this Summer

Summer Reading Challenge 2017

From Saturday 15th July children aged 4-11 are once again invited to join the Summer Reading Challenge!

This year our theme is Animal Agents. The illustrations for the challenge have been done by Tony Ross, the award winning artist behind the Horrid Henry series.

The Animal Agents feature a variety of clever creatures, specially trained to use their skills and natural instincts to unravel mysteries!

To take part in the Challenge, all children will need to do is sign up at their nearest library. They will be given a special collector's folder and, as they borrow and read at least six library books, they will receive Animal Agent stickers and prizes! All of this is free!

Competition time!! This year, here in the Maidstone district, we are making it even more exciting and entering Maidstone schools into our competition!! Prizes awarded will include schools with the highest percentage of Summer Reading participants, most improved school and for the most children to complete the challenge!
